2015 ASSEMBLY BILL 1008

March 29, 2016 - Introduced by Representatives Goyke, Barnes, Zamarripa, Brostoff, Spreitzer, Johnson and Zepnick. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

AN ACT to amend 301.45 (1p) (a), 973.015 (1m) (a) 1. and 973.015 (1m) (b) of the statutes; relating to: expunging a court record of certain offenses a person committed before he or she reached the age of 25.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, generally if a person under the age of 25 commits a crime for which the maximum term of imprisonment is six years or less, a court may order, at the time it sentences the person for the crime, that the court's record of the crime and conviction be expunged when the person successfully completes his or her sentence, if the court finds that expunging the record will benefit the person and will not harm society.

Under current law, a person successfully completes his or her sentence if the person is not convicted of a subsequent offense and, if on probation, the probation is not revoked and person satisfies all conditions of probation. Upon successful completion, currently the detaining or probationary authority issues a certificate of discharge, which is forwarded to the court of record and which has the effect of expunging the record.

Under this bill, a court may not, at the time it sentences a person, enter an order allowing expungement if the person successfully completes his or her sentence. Under the bill, a court may enter an order allowing expungement upon petition, if the court determines the person has successfully completed his or her sentence, and that the person will benefit and society will not be harmed by this disposition.
